THE WALTHOUR-MOSS FUN DOG SHOW, A BARKING GOOD TIME!

The Walthour-Moss Foundation Fun Dog Show, held on Saturday June 10, was absolutely PAWS-ome! Over fifty-five dogs competed in nine classes for glory and barking rights. Our thanks to volunteer judge Elizabeth Rose who had the imPAWSible task of picking the winners from an amazing array of canines and their handlers.

Congratulations to Stuart and Kendyl Janis for their Best in Show win and to Bunny and Alice Glass for Reserve Best in Show. The Best in Show category is a great fundraiser for the Fun Dog Show and the Foundation. Thank you to everyone who supported the event with their Best in Show donations.

Teddy and Tommy Doonan took home top honors in the Best Coiffed Class. Athena and David Cohen handily won the Look Alike class, and David's sheppard mask got quite a cheer from the crowd. For the third year running, the Cutest Dog class had the most entries and was split into two sections. Petals the Intimidator and Rachael Chick took home the blue ribbon in Section A and Betsy Ross and Pam Wagner took home the blue ribbon in Section B. Waggiest Tail also had a record number of entries and was split in to two sections with victories going to Peri and Al Chick in Section A and Max and Shelly Talk in Section B. Al and Peri also strutted their way to victory in the Best 6 Legs Class.

Dori and Dottie Greenleaf won the Best Trick class for the third straight year with Pepper and Kris Martinez taking second place for the third year as well. Seven entered the Junior Handler class and judge Elizabeth Rose pinned them all with blue ribbons! Another crowd favorite, Best Rescue Dog, was heavily subscribed and split into two classes. Pepper and Kris Martinez won Section A and Snow and Andrea Moore won Section B. Cameron Sadler's Millie, shown by Paeton Park, took home the blue ribbon in the Senior Dog Class.

Jenn Chopping and had several adorable puppies and dogs on hand from Caring Hearts for Canines, a local dog rescue, looking for their forever homes. Jenn reported that all the dogs at the show that day have since been adopted!

Heaps of woofs and thanks to our sponsors and prize donors! Moore Equine Feed & Supply provided first place gift bags chock full of goodies as well as coupons for the store to all competitors. Driveway Dogs Mobile Grooming sponsored the Best Coiffed class, Jesse Coyle from Webb & Coyle PLLC and Denise Krauza from Beautopia Hair, Face & Body Spa donated prizes and baggies of dog biscuits for all competitors. Dave's Dirty Dog donated free dog wash coupons, and Cindy Pagnotta and Innovate Real Estate provided water, coffee and yummy donuts for all in attendance. Janie Boland, Susan Lindamood, Irene Russell, and Virginia C. Thomasson, CPA, PLLC all donated to Thank you to our superb pack of volunteers! Elizabeth Rose did a fantastic job judging and Sue Buckley served as announcer extraordinaire. Diane McKay served as the PUP-erazzi, taking fantastic photos of all the pooches and their friends. It takes a village to run an event. Thank you to following folks for stepping up to help with set up, take down and the running of the show: Alice Glass, Leslie Griewe, Mary Guo, Sally Howard, Stephen Later, Susan Lindamood, Laura Lindamood, Antonio Martinez, Sydney Maynor, Andrea and Dick Moore, Dennis Paules, Marcie Quist, Molly Robertson, Leigh Allen and Neil Schwartzberg, and Angie Tally.

JOIN THE BUSHWHACKER CLUB

BUSHWHACKER CLUB FENCE BUILDING

BUSHWHACKER CLUB FENCE BUILDING TEAM

On a very hot Saturday in early June, twelve members of The Walthour-Moss Foundation Bushwhacker Club met to remove and replace a portion of the forty year old boundary fence that stretches from Firelane 3 almost to Mile Away Lane (Firelane 2). The hardworking crew managed to remove and replace 450 feet of fence in under five hours.

Special thanks to Katie Cochran, Steve Cochran, and Daniel Clivner and to Bridget and Colin MacNair for donating the posts and flat boards used for the project.

Thank you to our Bushwhacker Club volunteers!
