A PUBLICATION OF THE WALTHOUR-MOSS FOUNDATION

VOLUME 15, JULY 2019

YIP, YAP, HOORAY FOR THE WMF FUN DOG SHOW

The Walthour-Moss Foundation Fun Dog Show, held on Saturday June 8, was absolutely, PAWS-itively fantastic! Over sixty dogs competed in nine classes for glory and barking rights. A St. Bernard-sized thank you to our volunteer judges Carol Dowd and Elizabeth Rose who had the impPAWSible task of picking the winners from an amazing array of canines and their handlers.

Congratulations to Sally Mae and Irene Russell for their Best in Show win and to Panda and Mary Dembosky for Reserve Best in Show. The Best in Show class is a fundraiser for the Fun Dog Show and the Foundation. Thank you to everyone who supported the event with their Best in Show donations.

Zelda and Stephen Later took home a blue ribbon in the Senior Dog Class, Betsy Ross and Pam Wagner won top honors in the Best Coiffed Class. Dori and Dottie Greenleaf performed upwards of ten tricks to secure the blue ribbon in the Best Trick Class (they've won it each year minus one when they could not attend!). Roxie and Marj Dwyer won the Look Alike class with their matching bikini costumes. As always, the Cutest Dog class had the most entries and was split into two sections. Teddy and Leah Wisinski took home the blue ribbon in Section A, and Bussy and Mia Barker took home the blue ribbon in Section B. The win for Waggiest Tail went to Max and Shelly Talk. Best Rescue was split into two groups with ties for first place in each section. Top ribbons went to Gryphon and Cambria Schwartz, Sally Mae and Irene Russell, Harry Domino and Dick Cavedo, and Gyp and Molly Schloesser. Ba-Loo and Laurial Berkheimer and Latti and Beth Farinella each walked away with a win in the Best 6 Legs Class.

Caring Hearts for Canines and their volunteers had adorable puppies and dogs on hand looking for their forever homes. Quite a few of the dogs in the Best Rescue class were Caring Hearts alums.

Yip, woof, hooray and thanks to our sponsors and prize donors. Dave's Dirty Dogs, Driveway Dogs Mobile Grooming, and Dog's Life of Pinehurst donated gift certificates. Cindy and Dominick Pagnotta provided water, coffee and yummy donuts for all in attendance. Sweetie Sweets Bakery and Susan Lehman donated the adorable and delicious sugar cookies for the Junior Handlers. Janie Boland, Brownback and Thomasson, CPAS, PLLC, Tia Chick and Craig Stokes, Susan Lindamood, Robbins May & Rich LLP, and Irene Russell each made donations to the prize fund.

THE COSTUMES IN THE LOOK ALIKE CLASS WERE A HUGE HIT!

Thank you to our superb pack of volunteers! Carol Dowd and Elizabeth Rose did a fantastic job judging. Gary Lergner lent his talents to serve as the announcer. Sassy Riley kept dogs and prizes organized at the ingate. Diane McKay served as the PUP-erazzi, taking fantastic photos of all the pooches and their friends. It takes a village to run an event. Thank you to following folks for stepping up to help with set up, take down and the running of the show: Ron Baldwin, Mike Bissict, Cathy and David Carter, Catherine DeLavergne, Carol Dowd, Nancy Fenn, Alice Glass, Leslie Griewe, Stephen Later, Gary Lergner, Susan Lindamood, Norman Minery, Dana Norquist, Dennis Paules, Sassy Riley, Irene Russell, Elizabeth Rose, Lincoln Sadler, and Sue Smithson.
